Recite clearly the Promise Prayer with your Prayer Partner.

Class Task 5: Making Good Choices

You have listened to the story of Naaman.

In this story, Naaman, and the young servant girl each made a good choice.

Can you remember what the young servant girl did to help Naaman and his family?

What good choice did she make? What good choice did Naaman make?

Draw or write about their choices below.

Two good choices

The servant girl's good choice	Naaman's good choice

The servant girl told Naaman and his family that the

Naaman had a terrible disease called I

At Baptism we were given the strength to make good choices but sometimes this can be hard. When we celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we think about the choices we have made and whether they helped us live like Jesus.

Practise saying the Promise Prayer with your Prayer Partner.
